By Henry F. Donovan.

The Chicago Eagle numbers among its subscribers the most influential, most prosperous and most respected men in Chicago.

It reaches nearly every man of standing in the community and all men who are molders of public opinion or directors of public affairs.

It is the guide, mentor and friend of every political leader of every shade of opinion.

It is read by Government, State, County and City Officials.

It is read by a big percentage of the legal fraternity, including bench and bar.

It is the favorite of Chicago's leading business men.

It reaches all classes in their homes.

It is read by the Fire Department.

It is read by the Police Department.

It is in every public office and every public library.

It is not controlled by any cheap, cheap or crooked advertising agency.

In the twenty years of its existence it has managed to build up a large circulation and great business without the aid of professional advertising sharks.

That is why it is so independent, so popular and so strong.

The Chicago Eagle is one paper that has never depended upon advertising agents for a circulation. It has one of its own.

A better man could not be placed on the Circuit Court bench than Thomas Taylor, Jr.

John J. Coburn's candidacy for Superior Court Judge is arousing enthusiasm all over the county. His election by a big plurality looks certain.

Judge John R. Caverly is one of the most painstaking men on the bench. Chicago needs more like him in the Municipal Court.

Daniel L. Cruice has worked conscientiously and honestly in behalf of the cause of the laboring man and his candidacy for Superior Court Judge deserves the support of everyone who believes in an honest and fearless judiciary.

Give Daniel L. Cruice your vote for Superior Court Judge and you won't regret it.

Judge Joseph H. Fitch has made a fine record on the Superior Court bench, and every good citizen should vote for his re-election.

One of the best qualified men named for Superior Court Judge is Ross C. Hall, Democratic nominee. His long and honorable record as a lawyer well fits him for a seat on the bench.

Otto Tosetti, vice president of the well-known Ernst Tosetti Brewing Company, rightly deserves the widespread popularity he enjoys in the business and social world of Chicago.

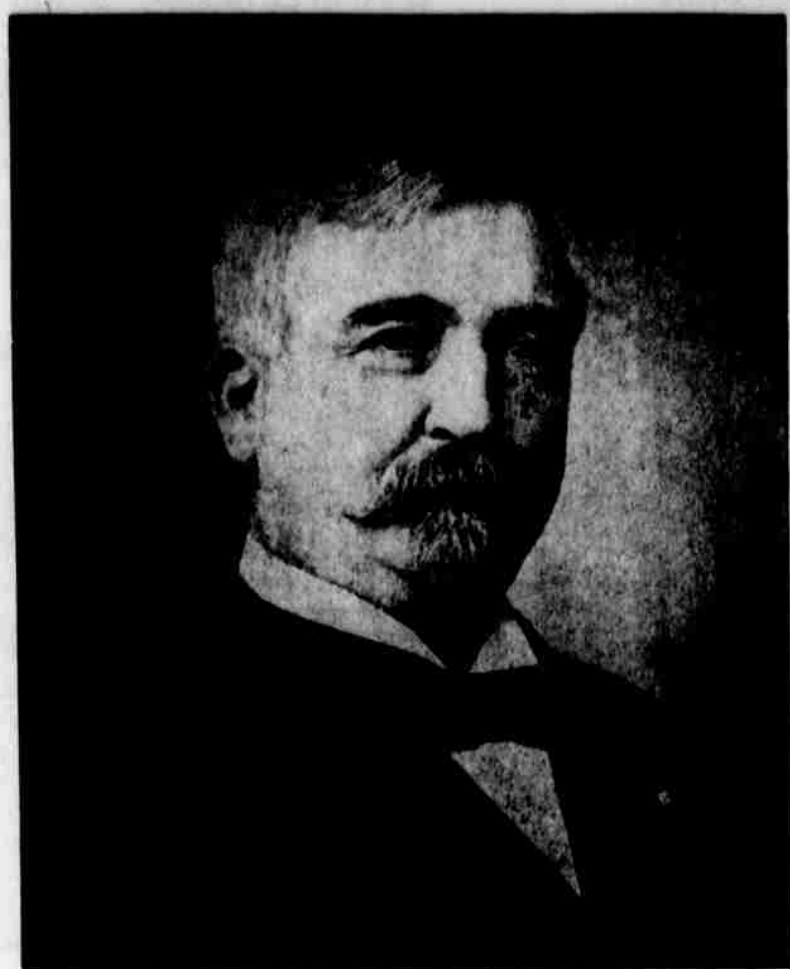

Both as a Judge and a citizen Judge Edward Osgood Brown is respected by all.

William Ritchie can at all times point to his splendid record as a lawyer and a citizen with pride. It has won for him a richly deserved popularity throughout Cook County.

Judge Marcus Kavanagh will have little trouble in being re-elected. His honest and brilliant record is known to all and the vote he will receive will be a big one.

The taxpayers have in President Thomas A. Smyth of the Sanitary Board an honest and faithful public official who is not afraid to do his duty.

United States Marshal Luman T. Hoy was sworn in to succeed himself by Judge George A. Carpenter of the United States Court Monday. As soon as he took the oath Mr. Hoy returned to his office and swore in his deputies. There are only two changes in his staff of assistants. John P. Wolf was reappointed chief deputy. Eighteen others were sworn in as deputies.

Daniel L. Cruice's election as judge of the Superior Court is desired by everybody that wants to see able, broadminded and fearless men placed on the bench. He will make a great judge.

James S. Hopkins, the popular Master-in-Chancery, has earned by his clean and able record a high place in the estimation of the people.

The people of Cook County never had an abler, fairer or more conscientious man on the bench than Judge Kieckheaf Scanlan.

Judge Charles A. Williams is making the fine record in the Municipal Court that every one of his big army of friends knew he would make. He is an able, fair-minded and painstaking Judge.

Thomas Taylor, Jr., would serve the people well on the Circuit Court bench.

Albert G. Wheeler commands at all times the confidence and highest esteem of Chicago's leading business men and financiers.

William Schumacher, the popular Western manager for Rudolph Oelner, stands in the front ranks of Chicago's leading business men.

The judicial campaign is now on in earnest.

Henry J. Kolze, the popular former County Commissioner, is much talked of for Sanitary Trustee by Republican leaders. A better man could not be nominated.

Thomas Taylor, Jr., Republican nominee for Judge of the Circuit Court, has been for nineteen years master in chancery of the Circuit Court of Cook County, and is a man of well-known legal ability. After attending public school he entered Knox College at Galesburg, worked his way through, and was graduated in 1881. He was active in college affairs and was president of the Gnothauti Literary Society. In 1882 Mr. Taylor entered the Harvard University law school, from which he was graduated with honor in 1885, receiving the degree of LL. B. Shortly afterward he was admitted to the Suffolk County (Mass.) bar and for a year practiced law in Boston in the offices of Burdette & Gooch. In 1887 Mr. Taylor came to Chicago, and since that time has been actively engaged in law practice. Mr. Taylor is a member of the Chicago, University, Law, City, Hamilton and Marquette clubs. He is on the executive committee of the Illinois Humane Society, is vice president of the Onwentsia Club and is a member of the Chicago, Illinois and American Bar associations. In 1906 he was appointed by Governor Deneen a delegate to the congress on uniform law. Mr. Taylor is married and has three children. His home is in Hubbard Woods, Winnetka.

Col. James Hamilton Lewis will be the next Democratic nominee for United States Senator.

Judge Marcus Kavanagh has endeavored himself to the people by his able, honest and fearless record on the bench. Everybody is with him for re-election.

Judge John R. Caverly continues to add daily to his big army of friends by his fine record on the Municipal Court bench.

John P. McGorty's candidacy for Judge of the Circuit Court is being pushed by an army of enthusiastic friends and admirers of that popular lawyer and Democrat, whose public record is so well known to the people of Chicago and Illinois.

Albert J. Hopkins for Vice President in 1912 is a popular slogan among Republicans throughout Illinois.

John J. Coburn can well feel proud of the splendid victory won for the widows of the firemen who lost their lives in the stockyards fire. Mr. Coburn plead the cause of the widows before Judge Cooper and the latter in a masterful opinion decided in their favor.

President Thomas A. Smyth of the Sanitary Board is working hard at all times for the best interests of the taxpayers.

Ross C. Hall will make a good Superior Court Judge. His nomination was a popular one.

A good, honest, fair-minded judge like Joseph H. Fitch should be kept on the bench. Vote for him.

Albert G. Wheeler stands foremost among Chicago's successful financiers and business men.

Everybody is with Judge Marcus Kavanagh for re-election.

Edward F. Dunne for governor will prove a winner.

All good citizens are uniting on Judge Marcus Kavanagh's candidacy for re-election, and a victory for him on November 7 is certain.

William Ritchie has earned by his long and clean record as a lawyer and a citizen the highest esteem of the citizens of Chicago.

Judge Edward Osgood Brown deserves the high place he holds in the estimation of the people of Cook County. His brilliant record has earned it for him.

One of the most successful of Chicago's breweries is the Tosetti Brewing Company. Its beer is popular everywhere.

Fred W. Block, the popular Democratic leader and former City Treasurer, is being urged by his friends to come out for Congress in the Sixth District. Mr. Block would have little trouble in winning either the nomination or the election and he would prove a worthy representative of the people at Washington.

An abler, more honest or more fearless man never sat on the bench in Cook County than Judge Marcus Kavanagh. His re-election is certain.

Judge Joseph H. Fitch will prove an easy winner for re-election. He is one of the best men on the bench and his good record is known to everybody.

The city department of electricity can be relied upon to back up the telephone monopoly. If you don't believe it ask the Western Electrical Company.

William Ritchie stands foremost among Chicago's ablest and most successful lawyers.

Paving North Side alleys with brick, whether they need it or not, is getting to be the regular thing these days. Who gets the graft?

If the daily newspapers did not publish dope sheets there would be less gambling in Chicago. It looks funny to see a daily paper denouncing book-making on one page and publishing odds on another.

John J. Coburn is the choice of all classes of people for Judge of the Superior Court. His plurality next November will be a big one.

Albert G. Wheeler is deservedly so, one of Chicago's ablest and leading financiers and business men.

Some of the progressives are in for a fine beating.

A bigger fight is coming off at the next State primary of both big parties than many people expect.

Some of the judicial candidates would make good dog catchers—possibly. But as lawyers they have been failures and as judges they would be out of place.

The election cannot be a tie and it cannot be unanimous. But there is a feeling about some of the nominees that will force a number of people to go to the polls.

JOSEPH H. FITCH
Judge of the Superior Court Who Deserves to Be Re-elected.

Following is the political calendar for 1911 and 1912:

November 7, 1911—Judicial election.

January 27, 1912—First day for filing aldermanic petition.

February 10, 1912—First day for filing petition for nominations for offices to be voted at April primaries.

February 12, 1912—Last day for filing nominations for alderman.

February 27, 1912—Primary for aldermanic nominations.

March 7, 1912—Last day for filing call for congressional and state conventions.

March 11, 1912—Last day for filing petitions for April primary (Municipal judge excepted).

March 25, 1912—Last day for filing Municipal judge petitions.

April 2, 1912—Aldermanic election.

April 9, 1912—Primary for offices to be filled at fall election.

April 15, 1912—County convention.

April 17, 1912—Congressional convention.

April 19, 1912—State conventions.

November 5, 1912—General election.

Following are the offices to be filled in 1911 and 1912:

November 7, 1911—Ten Superior court judges, one Circuit court judge.

April 2, 1912—One alderman from each ward.

November 5, 1912—President and vice-president of the United States, twenty-seven presidential electors, governor, secretary of state, attorney general, lieutenant governor, state treasurer, auditor, three university trustees, members of congress, member of the legislature, one state senator from even numbered senatorial district, state's attorney, president of the county board, and fifteen members of board, recorder of deeds, circuit court clerk, superior court clerk, coroner, member of board of review, two members of county board of assessors, nine judges of the municipal court, three sanitary trustees.

The people demand one cent telephones.

All factions of Democrats are with Col. James Hamilton Lewis for United States Senator.

Permanent bridges over the river would do wonders for Chicago.

How many aldermen are "fixed" on this telephone robbery?

Ross C. Hall, Democratic candidate for Judge of the Superior Court, was born in Rushville, Ill., October 29, 1866. He was educated in the public and high schools of Macomb, Ill., and Georgetown college, Washington, D. C. Mr. Hall was admitted to the bar in 1888 and has practiced in Chicago since 1893. His offices are in the Ashland block and his practice has been a success from the start. He was a member of the 40th general assembly of Illinois, 1897-8, where he made a splendid record, and was nominated by the Democrats in 1906 for sanitary trustee. He resides in Oak Park. Mr. Hall has been a life long Democrat and has a host of friends and admirers all over Chicago and throughout Cook county. He is well qualified for a seat on the bench.

Judge Joseph H. Fitch has made a magnificent record on the bench and he will be re-elected by a large plurality.

Daniel L. Cruice is a winner for Superior court judge and don't you forget it.

Judge John R. Caverly is one of the ablest, hardest working and best liked men on the Municipal Court bench.

Dunne for Governor is the Democratic battle cry.

John J. Coburn is a sure winner for Superior Court judge.

Judge John R. Caverly's good record on the Municipal bench is in keeping with his record as City Attorney and as a magistrate.

service, the confidence and highest esteem of all Chicagoans.

Col. James Hamilton Lewis is the real choice of the Democrats for United States Senator from Illinois.

Daniel L. Cruice is fitted in every way for a seat on the Superior Court bench. His election by a big plurality is predicted on all sides.

President Thomas A. Smyth, of the Sanitary Board, has plenty of backbone. He also has a good reputation as a business man, an official and a citizen.

Albert J. Hopkins' clean, able and fearless record in the United States Senate and in Congress is well known to the people of Illinois. They are with him now just as they were with him when they endorsed him by such a rousing plurality at the primary in 1909.

There is a good deal of laughter over some of the judicial candidates.

Why are the elevated platforms littered up with weighing machines and gum machines that are invariably out of order?

Daniel L. Cruice's candidacy for Superior Court Judge is growing stronger every day and all indications point to his election by a big plurality. He will make a great judge.

And now for the election.

All you've got to do is to pick out a good man for judge and vote for him. You can vote for ten Superior Court judges and one Circuit Court judge.

James S. Hopkins has earned by his able and clean record as a lawyer the highest esteem of both bench and bar in Cook County.

John J. Coburn is daily gaining in strength in his campaign for Superior Court Judge. His election is conceded on all sides.

Mathias Aller, the popular brewer and Twenty-sixth Ward Democrat, would prove a strong candidate before the people next year.
